

Regent Language Training

Complete your Christmas with a Regent Oxford Experience!

Winter is a great time to study English in a more relaxed, quieter and more focused learning environment. With smaller classes the teachers have more time to hone your language skills and accelerate your progress in a short period of time.

This winter season Regent Oxford will be open as usual and we will offer our complete range of programmes. Our festive season courses will include both the challenging, dynamic and structured tuition you have come to expect from us as well as exciting social celebrations that will transcend linguistic barriers!

Please find below more information on our Christmas courses and accommodation options as well as a sample of our festive leisure programme. I look forward to hearing from you soon and await your enrolment to complete your Christmas holidays with a Regent Oxford experience.
