

Stratford-Upon-Avon

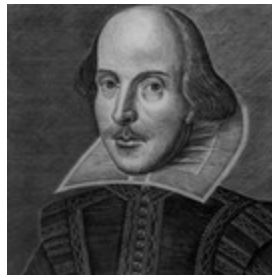

Regent Stowe Excursion

About Stratford-Upon-Avon

This market town was built in 1196 on a medieval grid system and has many historical and cultural treasures. In the 16th century the town was home to England's best known playwright William Shakespeare. Today his place of birth is world-famous.

Shakespeare Tour

Students discover the five houses connected to Shakespeare in Stratford-Upon-Avon including his birthplace and his wife's childhood home. Students learn about Shakespeare's life, but also about the time in which he lived, the Elizabethan period, named after the queen of the time.

Butterfly Farm

Stratford Upon Avon Butterfly Farm is the UK's largest tropical free flying butterfly house. Students learn about the wonderful English countryside here. There are also handling sessions when students can meet other animals such as snakes and stick insects.

Excursion English

Students test their skills in Elizabethan English by reciting Shakespeare quotes. There is a list of quotes that relate to various locations on the excursion, saying the quote at each place in a theatrical manner. These videos are then presented in the lesson on the following Monday. Points are rewarded for the most authentic presentation style.
