

English World Courses 2019

This programme is designed for ambitious and motivated individuals looking to make significant progress in their language skills. Our course is unique – teaching English as a tool for global communication through real-life situations and contexts to develop natural language skills. Through group research, presentations and debates students build skills in critical thinking and cross-cultural communication and develop confident and natural performance skills in English. We are ambitious for our students. We encourage students to identify their personal goals and work closely with them to ensure they achieve them.

Course Content

Skills Training (09:00 – 10:00)

This section focuses on a different skill set each day, from study skills to vocabulary building and pronunciation.

Accuracy in Grammar (10:15 – 11:15)

The aim is to present and clarify structure, then ensure its accurate production in written and spoken English.

Knowledge for a Global Community (11:30-12:30)

Students work together to research a weekly topic and then present their findings to their peers in a debate or presentation. Topics are drawn from history, the environment, the economy, culture, etc.

Language Focus (13:30 – 14:30)

Students look at key language elements: listening, reading and writing.

Confident Spoken Performance (14:45 – 15:45)

Using role-plays, discussions and mini-dramas students focus on confidence and fluency in spoken English.

1:1 Lesson (16.00 – 17.00) – Combination course only

This individual session allows you to focus on your own personal study goals and individual needs.

Exam Preparation Courses 2019

Our exam preparation courses are designed to give you comprehensive training in the content and strategies essential for a good grade in the IELTS and Cambridge exams. These courses combine three daily sessions of language focus to develop English skills and language fluency with two hours focused specifically on examination skills. These afternoon sessions look at examination techniques, key vocabulary, phrases and structures. Students sit regular practice papers to familiarise themselves with working under authentic examination conditions.

Skills Training (09:00 – 10:00)

This section focuses on a different skill set each day, from study skills to vocabulary building to pronunciation.

Accuracy in Grammar (10:15 – 11:15)

The aim is to present and clarify structure, then ensure its accurate production in written and spoken English.

Writing Skills (11:30-12:30)

In this hour students work on writing skills for examinations. Many people find writing the most challenging skill to master and so need these five hours a week to focus on composition structure, planning, spelling and fluent written expression.

Examination Focus (13:30 – 14:30)

Students prepare for the reading, writing and listening sections of the exam. This section is designed to expand students' language skills and teach exam techniques.

Exam Skills Spoken Performance (14:45 – 15:45)

Students learn oral skills, focusing on spoken fluency and public speaking skills. Students grow in confidence to deliver an assured performance in the test.

1:1 Lesson (16.00 – 17.00) – Combination course only

This individual session allows you to focus on your own personal study goals and individual needs.

Features & Benefits

- Weekly on-to-one coaching sessions give each student individual care and guidance.
- Classes taught by appropriately experienced teachers ensure that students receive the best possible training in exam content and strategy.
- Legacy of excellent exam results – our highest IELTS score in 2016 was 8.5.
- Free university advisory service available to those interested in further education in the UK.
