IELTS programme

IELTS is the International English Language Testing System, designed to test your English Language ability for higher education, immigration and employment (both in the UK and overseas). Results from IELTS tests are recognised by universities, colleges and professional bodies internationally. IELTS gives you a test report that shows an overall score for your level of English ability by assessing your Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking. Our IELTS preparation programme consists of five complimentary sessions, which combine core language skills with specific exam preparation and practice.

To be successful in this exam you need a wide range of vocabulary and syntax. Our course is designed to build these areas using engaging, authentic situations while providing plenty of exam skills and practice.

Courses run all year and start every Monday. The exam can be taken in school.

Individual Tuition

Learn English quickly with personalised lessons to suit your specific language needs

One-to-one lessons for more personalised progress

This programme is ideal for you if:

- You need to improve your English language skills for specific purposes e.g. English for finance, IT, pharmaceuticals, the legal profession and more
- You have time constraints and need to make rapid progress.
- You require extra focus when preparing for a Cambridge exam or IELTS test.
- You have unique learning requirements.
- You are a true beginner.

All our group programmes can be supplemented with 1:1 tuition. Teachers are chosen for their experience in or professional background knowledge of the subject areas.

Course outline

Individual tuition offers you a programme which is designed precisely to your own unique requirements. This means you make the maximum possible progress because the teacher is able to focus on your needs and your personal learning style in every lesson.

It's a tailor-made programme so you will make maximum progress. Tuition is individually matched to your requirements so you can focus on your specific tuition needs.

Flexible number of hours per week suit your schedule

You can choose from 30, 25, 20 and 15 hours per week and start on any Monday throughout the year, so that your course fits in with your life.

Throughout the day you can supplement your lessons with self-study in our quiet areas. This helps to consolidate the work done during lessons. Teachers set self-study exercises and give direction and guidance for students to maximise their consolidation time between lessons.

Arts, Literature and Culture course

Study contemporary writers and anything arts related during the world famous Edinburgh Festival

Course overview

This course is designed for the sophisticated, intellectual student who has a passion for learning, already has a good level of English and would like a highly structured two week course.

The course will include 50 hours of tuition over a 10 day period. The course will be divided into three main areas:

Literature Analysis
Writing Workshop
Arts and Culture

By the end of the course, students will have developed and consolidated their knowledge of English arts, literature and culture. They will have improved their critical awareness of selected material enabling them to discuss and debate topics with confidence. Finally, they will have developed their ability to research, select and adapt useful materials and resources.

Every student will also receive a weekly coaching session. This is an individual, tailor-made 15 minute meeting and is used to help students achieve their course objectives.

Course Components

Literature Analysis

Students will study extracts of classic and modern texts. Sessions will include an analysis of stylistic traits, the language of literary commentary and critique and discussions on the social context.

Writing Workshop

This is a creative and interactive session in which the student will put into practice the themes and techniques already analysed. Students will look in depth into poetry, genre and literary strategies, cast a critical eye over the different authors and publishers and consolidate what they have learnt by doing it all themselves.

Arts and Culture

This will include a critical look at art and photography, a critique of modern cinema and television and whether these are defined by, or define our culture. Theatre will also be examined. Finally, a taste of British music as a culture carrier will be discussed; viewing the lyrics as modern poetry and how this compares with more traditional prose.

Cultural Programme

The cultural visits will complement the content of the course, enabling students to experience first hand what they have been discussing. Activities will include a theatre trip, visits to the Scottish National Galleries, a literary tour of Edinburgh and events at the Edinburgh International Book Festival.

Dates and Fees 2020

02.08.2020 – 15.08.2020    £1,050

Course details

- 25 hours per week
- Max 12 students per class
- Includes a cultural programme
- Entry level – Upper intermediate

Homestay Accommodation

Experience life in the UK and use your English at home with a local family

Homestay Accommodation

Living with a family is a good way to practise your English outside the classroom and experience the British way of life. Your host family will provide you with a comfortable room, breakfast and dinner.

Location

Most host families live in residential areas around the city with easy access to the school. It is very common in Edinburgh for people to travel between 20 to 40 minutes by bus to and from school or work.

Your Host Family

You may stay with a family with children, a single person, a retired couple or a young couple. Many different types of people enjoy hosting foreign students. To ensure that we find the best family for you, please inform us about any special requirements well in advance.

Once we find the right host family for you, we will send you the address and a brief description of the family no later than 1 week before your course starts.

Quality

The Accommodation Officer personally visits each host family to ensure that the highest standards are maintained and we keep in close contact with the family during your stay. The Accommodation Officer will make sure everything runs smoothly and is always available to speak to you.

Services

Your room is cleaned once a week and bedding and towels are also changed weekly. Your laundry can be done twice a week.

Internet

Internet is available at most of our host families. You can also purchase a wireless connection from any of the mobile telephone providers which will give you your own unlimited internet access. You can also use free Wi-Fi connection at the school.

Arrival

We can organise a taxi transfer from any of the major airports in the UK to your homestay accommodation. If you arrive at your host family independently, please inform us about your arrival time and your host family will greet you at home.

Fees 2020

Homestay –Bed, breakfast and evening meal	£230
Ensuite Homestay – Bed, Breakfast and evening meal	£353
Extra night	£33/ £53
Transfers	£64 (one way)

I stayed with a wonderful family in Edinburgh who made me feel very well and at home. I was able to practice my English with real Scottish people.
