

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AGAINST ABUSE STATEMENT

Regent Language Training has implemented a number of measures in developing a safeguarding policy aimed at protecting young learners against abuse. These measures are contained in a number of documents which together constitute the policy. The procedures included in the policy are reviewed annually, and its provisions are embedded in the culture of the organisation. Formal training and refresher courses are held to ensure that all relevant employees are aware of the policy and conform to its guidelines.

Following amendment of the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 by the Protection of Freedoms Bill, the policies that relate to England and Wales will be updated.
